

Indonesian Batik

Painting

The name “Batik” is derived from the Javanese word which means “to dot” and refers to the process of applying wax to clothes.

Each design is unique and can be traced back to the artist who created it. Hence, each is a masterpiece.

The Paintings can be picture framed or used as table runners and are available in a variety of designs or can be customized from photos.

Stylish Shirts and cloth material for women’s sarong and dress making complete our range. Purchase of these elegant, specially designed, hand painted Batik would support and improve the livelihoods of these producer families in Indonesia and make a difference in the pursuit of Social Justice and Common Good.
