Ecuadorian Products

We offer a range of Fair Trade products for Christmas season that have been specially made with love, care and devotion by producers from communities in Ecuador. These products are designed to reflect the joy of this festive season, and to participate in your celebrations.

Marzipan, ceramics and natural fibers are some of the materials that used to make these beautiful and unique pieces that reflect the dreams and aspirations of those who produce them. Dreams that are based on social justice and love for all at Christmas..

Let's help these producers and their families at this special time of the year
